강의개요	This course is designed to help students to learn how to speak in front of audience logically and understandably. Students are assigned certain issues or material they have to summarise and practise speaking before class. This course is Sun Moon Course Embedded Assessment, which means that students are evaluated based on performances in class as well as exams.
강의목표	The purpose of the course is to develop the studnets' skill to speak publicly without a stage fright and get the message across to the audience.
평가방법	Evaluations are based on the performances in class and in mid-term and final, which include public speaking and summarization. Performance in class, midterm and final account for 40%, 30% and 30% of total scores respectively. Absense from class may detract from your scores. Grade A accounts for up to 39% of the number of enrollees.
강의진행방법	Students are asked to read in advance some materials or listen to spoken materials and summarise and upload them on the e-lecture room. They are required to deliver presentations in class with their own ideas based on the material or their own ideas, which is followed by comments and questions. This course is conducted in English.
